Workers! Reconstitute the Communist Party of Canada!

Canadian imperialism is in crisis and the bourgeoisie expect the workers to pay for it. Countless workers are being thrown into the ranks of the unemployed and basic necessities like food and gas are increasingly unaffordable. The bourgeoisie and their representatives in parliament have not lifted a finger to prevent any of this as it is in their interests. They openly called for an increase in unemployment in an effort to slow inflation and the bourgeoisie alone have profited from the rising price of goods.

Amid this crisis, the workers are scattered and betrayed by our leaders at every turn. The union bureaucrats are ignoring calls to strike, collaborating with the bourgeois state, and forcing through sweetheart deals. The line between the mainstream unions and the company unions is disappearing by the day under their bureaucratic leadership.

The workers are no better served by our “representatives” in parliament, the NDP, QS, BQ, and PQ. Federally, the NDP have stood by the Trudeau government throughout every anti-worker bill. In BC, they have created secret RCMP units, terrorised the Wet’suwet’en, and denied even the luke-warm demands of the workers for more sick days. In Manitoba, the NDP government is expanding the police.

There is no hope for the workers under capitalism. Our interests lie with socialist revolution and communism. However, we cannot rely on our sell-out leaders. The workers need a communist party to lead the struggle that will put an end to the exploitation of man-by-man.

The immediate steps the workers will take when in power are:

1. The overthrow of the bourgeois state and establishment of the workers’ republic;

Workers! Reconstitute the Communist Party of Canada!

Canadian imperialism is in crisis and the bourgeoisie expect the workers to pay for it. Countless workers are being thrown into the ranks of the unemployed and basic necessities like food and gas are increasingly unaffordable. The bourgeoisie and their representatives in parliament have not lifted a finger to prevent any of this as it is in their interests. They openly called for an increase in unemployment in an effort to slow inflation and the bourgeoisie alone have profited from the rising price of goods.

Amid this crisis, the workers are scattered and betrayed by our leaders at every turn. The union bureaucrats are ignoring calls to strike, collaborating with the bourgeois state, and forcing through sweetheart deals. The line between the mainstream unions and the company unions is disappearing by the day under their bureaucratic leadership.

The workers are no better served by our “representatives” in parliament, the NDP, QS, BQ, and PQ. Federally, the NDP have stood by the Trudeau government throughout every anti-worker bill. In BC, they have created secret RCMP units, terrorised the Wet’suwet’en, and denied even the luke-warm demands of the workers for more sick days. In Manitoba, the NDP government is expanding the police.

There is no hope for the workers under capitalism. Our interests lie with socialist revolution and communism. However, we cannot rely on our sell-out leaders. The workers need a communist party to lead the struggle that will put an end to the exploitation of man-by-man.

The immediate steps the workers will take when in power are:

1. The overthrow of the bourgeois state and establishment of the workers’ republic;

2. Participation of the workers in management, managers in production, removal unnecessary regulations, and management of all workplaces by elected workers' committees;
3. Arming of the workers and allies in a workers' militia;
4. The right to self-determination for all oppressed nations in Canada;
5. Support the workers of the world in building socialism and overthrowing imperialism;
6. Abolition of imperialism and confiscation of all private property of the big and middle bourgeoisie;
7. Nationalisation of the confiscated property and the organisation of cooperatives among the allied classes of the workers;
8. Allocation of the products of society (1) towards the reproduction and expansion of the means of production; (2) to administration, collective needs, and social insurance; and (3) to those who produce on the basis of the labour they contributed.

The Communist Party of Canada (Red Fraction) has been founded by workers across Canada to as an organisation to lead the reconstitution of the communist party. While reconstitution of the party, socialist revolution, and communism are the aims of the CPC(RF), it will also fight for the interests of the workers under capitalism.

Reconstitute the Communist Party of Canada!
Join the Communist Party of Canada (Red Fraction)!

cwf.foc@protonmail.com
communistworkers.wordpress.com

2. Participation of the workers in management, managers in production, removal unnecessary regulations, and management of all workplaces by elected workers' committees;
3. Arming of the workers and allies in a workers' militia;
4. The right to self-determination for all oppressed nations in Canada;
5. Support the workers of the world in building socialism and overthrowing imperialism;
6. Abolition of imperialism and confiscation of all private property of the big and middle bourgeoisie;
7. Nationalisation of the confiscated property and the organisation of cooperatives among the allied classes of the workers;
8. Allocation of the products of society (1) towards the reproduction and expansion of the means of production; (2) to administration, collective needs, and social insurance; and (3) to those who produce on the basis of the labour they contributed.

The Communist Party of Canada (Red Fraction) has been founded by workers across Canada to as an organisation to lead the reconstitution of the communist party. While reconstitution of the party, socialist revolution, and communism are the aims of the CPC(RF), it will also fight for the interests of the workers under capitalism.

Reconstitute the Communist Party of Canada!
Join the Communist Party of Canada (Red Fraction)!

cwf.foc@protonmail.com
communistworkers.wordpress.com