Comrades! Today, we once again cry out in the pages of history: "We have not been defeated, and we will not be defeated!"

"Just as a spark tears through the darkness to bring light,
Just as a seed sprouts from the deepest depths of the soil,
Our revolutionary struggle will overcome every hardship and achieve victory!"

- Cüneyt Kahraman, MKP 4th General Secretary

Comrade Cüneyt Kahraman, the 4th General Secretary of the Maoist Party, became a symbol of resistance along with his seven comrades against the enemy's technological superiority in the mountains of Dersim on March 15, 1997. His struggle guides us today. His memory ignites our revolutionary spirit. Comrade Cüneyt Kahraman is immortal!

Today, against liquidationist winds, those who have lost their way, and those who set sail into the dark waters of the system, we proclaim once again:

"The revolutionary struggle has not ended, and it will never end!"

As the Maoist Party traverses one of the steepest ascents in its history, it possesses the strength to overcome every obstacle with the spirit of the 1972 Kaypakkaya followers. Our party, the representative of the international communist movement in Turkey and Northern Kurdistan, will heal the wounds of the blows it has endured and will carry the spirit of '72 to victory. Our peoples should have no doubt about this!

Comrades!

Revolutionary theory is not a puzzle; class struggle is not a toy. The victories and defeats in the process of the proletarian world revolution flow like the course of a river—full of ups and downs. However, every revolutionary knows the importance of learning from defeats and continuing the struggle. The determination to bring our party's experiences into today's fight is of great significance.

Learn from our history!

We must learn from our comrades, from temporary defeats, and from the lessons they offer us. If the lives of our irreplaceable communist leaders still guide us in the most challenging times today, then we must deeply grasp and practice the philosophy, purpose, and tradition of revolutionary life.

Let it be known that we have a strong tradition of struggle!

Our comrades who dedicated their lives to the revolutionary cause and our Marxist-Leninist-Maoist party, which challenges the enemy with revolutionary spirit, will continue to walk the Kaypakkaya path. With the strength of upholding the purpose of our struggle, we stand against those who attempt to deviate into opportunism and reformism. And once again, with the spirit of Cüneyt, we cry out:

"COMRADES! OUR HISTORY IS OUR LESSON. REMEMBER WHERE WE LEFT OFF. WE HAVE NOT BEEN DEFEATED YET!"

Leadership in the Party is as crucial as the helm of a ship!

Without leadership that produces revolutionary theory, determines perspectives, and supervises decisions, it is impossible for the party to lead the masses. History has shown us that the assassination of our leaders has led to periods of liquidation, retreats, and fragmentation. Those who fail to grasp this lesson are nothing but liquidationist opportunists.

As the 4th General Secretary of our party, Comrade Cüneyt Kahraman bore the honor of leading our party during the most intense enemy offensives.
He played an indisputable role in ensuring party unity, repelling enemy attacks, and confronting the liquidationist wave. Today, we must carry forward his legacy and continue our revolutionary struggle.

At present, revisionist and opportunist tendencies, which have confronted our party in its most difficult times, have become reality over the past decade.
As we commemorate Communist Leader Cüneyt Kahraman, we emphasize that the efforts of those who distort history to abandon the revolutionary perspective of our party are acts of liquidationism. Those who rewrite history by distorting the truth do not serve the revolution!

It is time to follow in the footsteps of Cüneyt!

Despite the factors threatening our organizational existence, as militants devoted to the revolution, we will overcome all obstacles. Comrade Cüneyt represented the will to resist the liquidationist tide in the party's most difficult times. His clarity in MLM ideology, decisiveness in organizational practice, and openness to the party continue to guide us today.

Comrade Cüneyt defended, applied, and enforced revolutionary theory at a young age.
He was not only the nine-lived commander of the mountains but also one of the youngest irreplaceable leaders of our party. To uphold the proletarian revolutionary line against liquidationism, the swamp of legalism, and class surrender, we must walk in the footsteps of Cüneyt and his comrades!

Comrades!

We honor Comrade Cüneyt Kahraman and his seven comrades who became immortal alongside him. Like them, we will become the new warriors of the revolution. HISTORY

WRITTEN IN BLOOD CANNOT BE ERASED!
The memory of Communist Leader Cüneyt Kahraman and our martyred comrades strengthens our belief in victory once again.

Come, comrades!

Let us shoulder the responsibility that history has placed upon us. Let us embrace our revolutionary courage. Let us march toward victory in the footsteps of Cüneyt and his comrades!

"We have not been defeated, and we never will be!"
"Victory belongs to the revolutionaries!"

-Cüneyt Kahraman
